Mr. L. A. Jennings
Chairman of the Board
The Riggs National Bank
Washington, D. C. 20013

Dear Mr. Jennings:

Thank you for your letter of March 15, which was on my desk when I reported for duty this morning.

This is not an easy assignment, but your good wishes helped get me off to a running start.

I hope that in the performance of my duties it will be possible for me to call on you for the assistance you generously offer.

Sincerely yours,

Farris Bryant
