Dear Jim:

I certainly did appreciate the contents and tenor of your letter of March 3rd, and your thoughtfulness in taking the time to write me.

You have an idea relative to the homestead exemption which at first blush seems to me to be a wonderful solution to a difficult problem. I am immediately going to start a personal study to determine the overall effect on the tax structure of the elimination of homesteads in connection with a tax commission creation. I know you have been thinking about that a good deal, and I would like to join with you in pursuing that to see to what extent it is feasible.

With warmest regards I am

Sincerely yours,

C. Farris Bryant
