

December 3, 1959

Mr. Paul H. Brown
General Finance Corporation
41 East Robinson Street
Orlando, Florida

Dear Mr. Brown:

Your letter of November 30th was on my desk when I returned home this morning. Naturally, I am disappointed, and I know that Farris and our good friend Lloyd Gahr will share my disappointment.

Under the circumstances, however, I must agree with you, and since your present plans call for you to be away from Orlando during December and January with the exception of a few days at Christmastime, I do feel that someone else could help Lloyd more at the time.

We do not, however, feel that we are losing you, as you have offered us your pocketbook and your finances, as well as any other help you can give, and certainly this is all that anyone could ask. I am sure that you will continue to use your good influence with your many, many friends in Farris' behalf, and he will be forever grateful to you.

As to your financial assistance, I am sure Lloyd Gahr would appreciate hearing from you along this line and with any suggestions you might have now or in the future.

In my own case I feel that I have had the privilege of meeting a very fine citizen, and I do hope that as the months and years go by I shall have the privilege of meeting with you often.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

JCP-pc

Lloyd:

Paul Brown has offered to help financially. Instead of sending the check to me here, call him and you secure it there.