Dear John:

Just want you to know how very much I enjoyed seeing you at the meeting at Toffanetti's last week. I appreciate your taking time out of your busy schedule to attend this meeting, and am deeply grateful for your help and for your friendship.

One of the greatest factors in my optimism and confidence today is the willingness of friends like yourself who put their shoulders to the wheel.

Best wishes to you and yours for the Holiday Season.

Sincerely,

Farris Bryant
