DAN MCCARTY
GOVERNOR

July 14, 1953

Honorable C. Farris Bryant
Speaker of the House of Representatives
1016 E. Palm Street
Ocala, Florida

Dear Farris:

It will be my pleasure to act as host to the Southern Governors' Conference at the Boca Raton Club November 1-4, 1953. The response to my original letter of invitation to the Southern Governors indicates that all, or virtually all, of the Governors will be present.

Governor Talmadge, the Chairman of the Southern Governors' Conference, advises me that the Secretary of Agriculture, Honorable Ezra Taft Benson, has accepted an invitation to be the principal speaker at the Governors' Dinner on the evening of Monday, November 2.

I shall be honored to have you with me on that occasion. Please keep this date in mind and plan to be present, if you possibly can, because I want this Southern Governors' Conference to be outstanding in every respect, and I am sure that your presence will be appreciated by all of the Governors who may attend.

Kindest personal regards,

Sincerely,
