Dear Governor Bryant:

We are sending you herewith copies of correspondence to those individuals whom we have invited to participate in the conference on higher education scheduled to be held in the House Chamber here in Tallahassee beginning at 2 p.m. on May 29 and lasting through May 30, 1962. Attached as information is a mimeographed listing of the participants.

A copy of the program for the meeting is also enclosed. We very much appreciate your agreeing to give the keynote address on the challenge to higher education in Florida, which is scheduled at 2:15 p.m. on Tuesday, May 29.

All of those who are scheduled to make reports have accepted this responsibility. I believe we will have a very significant meeting, and we particularly appreciate your support.
