Dr. Manning J. Dauer,
Chairman, Dept. of Political Science,
University of Florida,
Gainesville, Florida.

Dear Manning:

Thank you for the two articles from the Florida Alligator; if you have noticed any other articles, will you please send them along for our publicity file? I shall very much appreciate having the list of registrants, the Panel questions and one or more of the photos for our use. If desired, I shall see that these are returned to you.

I was very glad to get your impression that the students felt the conference a success. The Rollins participants were most enthusiastic and indeed three of them are pressuring me to permit their attendance at Friday's conference in Tampa. I agree with you that the major problem revolves around persuading party politicians to join us. This will cure itself next year, I believe, with greater understanding of our purposes, and with a more carefully thought out selection of conference dates.

I have sent off a letter, as you suggested, to Billy Matthews.

Give me your bill at your earliest convenience and I will see that a check is issued forthwith.

As I said in concluding my remarks, we are all greatly indebted to Dean Page, to your Department and especially to you for making possible this successful conference.

Cordially as ever,

Franklyn A. Johnson

I believe the Miami conference was also eminently successful
