It would be difficult to gather together a group of Floridians more dedicated to the upholding of the Constitution of the United States--the part of government that touches the people.

Basic that you must feel that your job is right.

But that your duties arrived at in agreed fashion.

Yet the Const. is being tortured out of historical proportion by decision after decision of the U. S. Supreme Court

The decisions, cumulatively, seek by first to substitute a

This is not the first time. As recently as 1922 19308s this was done, but with a difference. In that case, elected, representative body made changes in a hurry, the judiciary approved. Today, 5 appointed Justides do the job. We reap what we approved.

The fiat now exercised involves certain basic assumptions concerning what is best for the American way of life, and amends the Constitution to effect those ends.

What was orig, drawn as a compact between the states to create a Fed Gov. With certain express powers threatens by decision of the High Court to become a one-eyey ticket to a fed. beaucracy, with states measurements between possessing leas and less suth.

The tragedy is the failure to realize that States Mights are people's rights. Gov, is too big and complex for true democracy—the only compromise is representative gov, in small enough units preserve with control in the people, and yet have all the advantages of common action.

Democracy was always expensive.

Madison et al.

There may be some who shudder as we thus criticise the High Court. We have formed the habit of respect, and that has been because the Court, in the vast majority of case, has deserved respect.

kimminmultimentalmentatamentationem. To criticize is not to revolt. To refuse the political consequences of a decisions is quite a different thing from refusing obscience to orders management decreed upon participants to a suit.

The people of the US are the rightful masters of both congress and the courts, not to overthrow the Constitution, but to overthrow the men who perfert the Constitution. The Supreme Court has taken it upon itself to say ximax by its actions, that membership in the Community Party is a more matter of political association—that advocacy of forcible overthrow of our government, short of incitement of direct action, is a harmless political activity.

I believe that to be frameworm error-and rhamithm error which violates reason, patriotism, and law. The Surrmen Court has taken it upon itself to say that

The Suprmem vourt has taken it upon itself to say that the State of New York may not discharge a teacher of its children who refuses to state he is not a member of the Communist Party.

The Supreme Court has taken it upon itself to say that the State of California must admit to its bar of justice a man who refuses to are wer the question of whether or not he is, at the time of his application, a member of the Communist Party in this country.

The Supreme Gourt road the State of New Hampshire that its Legislature might not inquire into the the actual content of a required-attendance lecture at a State university with Communists who had written that violence to justify the Soviet System was justified but that violence to preserve the capitalist system was doubly dammed--one for itself and

The Supreme Court told the State of Pennsylvinia that it might take no action against Steve Nelson, an admitted Communist, even though a Jury had found him guilty of violating the anti-subvorsion law of that sovereign state.

These errors might not be frightening, except for one thingthere is no memorializational measurements effective Constitutional. Tecourse. The judges are beyond the power of removal, and so long as they sit they can misread any amendment to the Constitution that might be attented.

may be one of the most Vigorous protest, rather than being wrong, invahements effective means xhambundhammanka which the people, supposedly the master of their government, have of recapturing their government.

The people should demand, however, that their representatives in the Legislature take at least three specific steps to improve the bad situation in which we find ourselfws.

1. Advise the Supreme Court by the most vigorous representation that the course upon which they are steering is unconstitutional.

%k. Propose a clarification of the Tenth Amendment to protect the States' meserved powers in unmistakable terms.

 Revise the system of selecting Federal Judges to ensure judicial capacity rather than political good fortune--and provide some method of removal short of impeachment. . Snact legislation to undo as great a portion of these decisions as is possible short of constitutional amendment
