

UNITED STATES SENATE
WASHINGTON, D. C.

JOSEPH D. TYDINGS
MARYLAND

April 6, 1966

The Honorable Farris Bryant
Director
Office of Emergency Planning
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Farris:

Congratulations upon the confirmation by the Senate of your nomination as Director of the Office of Emergency Planning. It certainly is one of the most important and responsible positions in the Executive Branch and the President was, indeed, fortunate to secure your services.

When your schedule eases up somewhat, I wish you would give me a call and we'll have lunch in the Senate on a mutually agreeable date. Perhaps I can invite some of my colleagues to join us.

In any event, congratulations and good luck on your important work.

Sincerely,
