

December 28, 1966

Dear Helen and Frank:

You are always so thoughtful. Your gifts are always so personal, and useful, and nice to receive. I treasure them for those reasons, and because you gave them.

We look forward to seeing you Saturday, but it will be quite hectic then in all probability, so I want to take this opportunity to wish you that which you deserve - the best of all good things in 1967.

Sincerely,

Farris Bryant
