

June 14, 1966

Dear Aleene:

I really don't have the responsibility in the field of traffic safety that you assume except as the President delegates some tasks to me in relation to the role of the Governors. I haven't forgotten the request that you made, and after the legislation has been enacted which the President has proposed, I will certainly review the possibility of your offer.

Julia and I are leaving for Europe June 21 and won't be here while you are. Vic Leavengood had written me and I suggested to him that while we couldn't join him in Washington, if he would come to Paris we would set the evening aside. We miss you, and look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,
