Dear Miss Verney:

My daughter, Adair, a student at Bartram School in Jacksonville, Florida, is interested in obtaining information on Bryn Mawr.

Would you please send her a Catalogue, application form, and other pertinent information, to the following address:

Miss Adair Bryant
1870 Challen Avenue
Jacksonville, Florida, 32205.

Thanking you, I am

Sincerely yours,

Farris Bryant

Adair: The wife of the Governor's speechwriter, Elaine Greenstone, is a graduate of Bryn Mawr. I mentioned to her that you are considering it, and she tells me that the alum associations in each city have teas for prospective students to meet professors and graduates. If Jacksonville has such a group, you will probably be invited. Also, you may be invited to the one in Washington, but it's not until November.
