The suffragettes have been busy in the provinces to-day, following up the campaign of revenge for the imprisonment of Mrs Pankhurst.

The grand stand of the Ayr race course in Scotland was burned.

Flower beds in Armstrong Park in Newcastle were devastated.

London: The beginning to be afraid that fear of the suffragettes will have a bad effect on the social season.

London:– The list of subscriptions to Covent Garden opera includes so many of Caruso and Melba. The list is headed by the king and queen and includes leaders of society, bankers’ shipping agents, mining magnates and heads of big commercial firms.

Winnipeg:– The Canadian Pacific Railway announced today that it would begin construction shortly of the longest tunnel in America. The tunnel will be built through Kicking Horse Pass in the Rocky Mountains, will be sixteen miles long, and will cost $14,000,000.

London:– Captain Oates, who died with Captain Scott on his ill-fated expedition, had lost both his feet from frost bite before he stumbled out of the tent to his death on the stumps of his legs, according to a letter to Captain Watson, agent of the Imperial Service Guild, Wellington, who says he makes the revelation on the authority of Commander Evans.

Columbus, Ohio:– Basing their figures to-day on reports received to-day, officials of the Red Cross Society issued today a statement estimating that 454 persons lost their lives in last week’s flood.

d of £300 only and that £80 of this excess was due to the purchase of typewriters was the reason for his motion. After some discussion the amendment was lost and the Vote of Indemnity was read a second and third time and agreed to.

Both Votes were ordered to be taken to the Legislative Council by the Clerk.

The House adjourned until Thursday evening.