GLOBAL GATORS

A father and son look at some of the UF students' 20 prints exhibited in China's largest photography festival.

China's largest photo festival shows 20 images by UF students

"Our photojournalism students' images look great," said John Kaplan, who's there this week, "and hold their own well in the international student exhibition, which includes schools such as Ohio University, Western Kentucky, NYU, the School of the Visual Arts, the Paris Art Institute and more than 35 other schools from around the world."

At the festival, Kaplan is giving a presentation and serving as a judge for a competition of 25 Chinese photography programs.
