OFFICE of the GOVERNOR-PRESIDENT
220 Administration Building, Balboa Heights

Governor F. K. NEWCOMER
J. H. Schneider, Secretary
Lt. Col. Marvin L. Jacobs, Military Assistant, 214 Administration Building

Lieutenant Governor HERBERT D. VOGEL
Mrs. Joyce C. Sebastian, Secretary

E. C. LOMBARD, Executive Secretary, 212 Administration Building
W. R. Rounsaville, Administrative Assistant

J. Rufus Hardy, Press Representative, 302 Administration Building

E. A. ERBE, Executive Assistant
524 Administration Building, Balboa Heights
The Governor's Staff Following the Reorganization

This picture of Governor Newcomer and his new staff of executives was taken at the first meeting following the reorganization of The Panama Canal and Panama Railroad on July 1. The first meeting was delayed pending the Governor's return from Washington, D. C., on official business. The staff members of the organization are:

Front row, left to right: L. W. Lewis, Supply and Service Director; Arnold Bruckner, Finance Director; Lieutenant Governor Herbert D. Vogel; Governor Newcomer; Captain Robert M. Peacher, Marine Director; Colonel George K. Withers, Engineering and Construction Director; and E. C. Lombard, Executive Secretary.

Middle row, left to right: W. H. Dunlop, Chief of the Management Division; Henry L. Donovan, Community Services Director; Colonel Richardson Selce, Civil Affairs Director; Edward A. Doolan, Personnel Director; Captain John J. Schiebler, Industrial Director; and Colonel Clifford G. Blich, Acting Health Director.

Back row, left to right: E. A. Erbe, Executive Assistant to the Governor-President; Edward N. Stokes, Acting Railroad and Terminals Director; and Paul A. Bentz, General Counsel.

Major General George W. Rice, Health Director, was away from the Isthmus at the time of the meeting, and A. L. Prather, Railroad and Terminals Director, did not attend because of illness.