Comet Shows Passengers All The South In A Glance

BY JAMES STEWART

Comets from the Inter-Club Tour airship are giving an air view of the four southern capitals and the Mediterranean coast.

The world of the future is beckoning to the Comet passengers as they fly over the southern capitals. The future will be a land of progress, with solar power providing energy for all.

The second Comet jet airliner is due to be delivered to the BOAC early next year. The airliner will be used for experimental flights.

BOAC should be receiving the first British Overseas Airways Corporation aircraft in the next few days. The airliner will be used for experimental flights.

The Comet airliner is being used to carry passengers between the southern capitals and the Mediterranean coast. The airliner is the first of its kind in the world, and is expected to revolutionize air travel.

Strahan Wins Amateur Golf Title

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland

The weather was ideal for golf on the day of the Amateur Golf Title. The course was in excellent condition, and the sun shone brightly.

Mr. Strahan, of the Royal & Ancient Golf Club, was the winner. He played a brilliant game, and his victory was well deserved.

The Royal & Ancient Golf Club is the oldest in the world, and its members are the most prestigious in the game.
