W. I. FIGHTING TO AVOID DEFEAT

"My Flying Saucer Will Be On Show"

Man Developed It 36 Years Ago

Mr. George Hockham Richards, 87 year-old air- and space pioneer and lecturer, believes that when the anniversaries of the great events in the history of flight are observed this month, on hisoeo June 11 it will reveal the secret of the "Flying Saucer." The British Government, it is believed, has received a demonstrator that is a flying saucer, and intends to release the plans and specifications for the same. Richards has been working on the "Flying Saucer" for over 50 years, and has claimed that it is the most advanced type of aircraft ever built. Richards' claims are being given serious consideration by the British Government, which is said to be interested in the possibility of using the "Flying Saucer" for military purposes.

British Favour Schuman Plan

The cordial atmosphere which has been prevailing during the negotiations at the Hague since the “good news from Britain” in London about British procedure in the “good news from Britain” is believed to be due to the British Government's assurance conveyed through the British Embassy in Paris that Britain's assurance this week. The British Government is said to be very pleased with the progress of the negotiations and is said to be confident that a satisfactory settlement will be reached.

French Willing To Admit Communist China To U.N.

The French Government has informed the United Nations that it is willing to admit Communist China to the United Nations. This is a significant step in the process of reunifying China. The French Government has been a strong advocate of the admission of Communist China to the United Nations, and has been working closely with other nations to achieve this goal.

Soviet Govt. Calls for International Talks On Antarctic

The Soviet Union has called for international talks on the Antarctic. This is a significant development in the current political situation, as the Antarctic is a region of great strategic importance.

U.S. Will Agree On Risk War Of Annihilation After Losing Cold War

The U.S. Government is said to be ready to agree to the risk of war of annihilation after losing the Cold War. This is a significant development, as it suggests that the U.S. Government is willing to accept the possibility of a catastrophic war in order to prevent the spread of communism.

Roccio Is Italy's First World City

Roccio, the new capital of Italy, has been named Italy's first World City. This is a significant development, as it suggests that Roccio is becoming an important international center.

Ex- Rebel Leader Held Up In Indonesia

The Indonesian government has arrested an ex-rebel leader in Indonesia. This is a significant development, as it suggests that the Indonesian government is taking action to prevent the spread of rebellion and violence in the country.

Stollmeyer Plays Hero's Innings For 67 Not Out

Yugoslavia Accused Of Provoking War In The Balkans

West Indies Still Need 264 Out of 386 Runs

W.L. 213 and (for 4) 122

MANCHESTER, June 10

With six wickets left, the West Indies still require 264 runs to beat England in the first official Test match which is scheduled to finish on Tuesday. England continued their second innings this morning and were all out for 588.

Today's Play

England finished at 119 for two in four hours 45 minutes yesterday. Had they set England a target today, it is unlikely that they would have won the match.

Stollmeyer

The hero of England's victory on Sunday was W. J. Stollmeyer, who hit 67 not out. He faced 98 balls and hit six sixes and 17 fours. He batted for 4 hours 20 minutes.

Lewis

Bob Lewis, the West Indies' main batsman, made 119 not out in the first innings.

Knutson

The West Indies' wicketkeeper, A. H. Knutson, made 28.

Somerfield

E. W. Somerfield, the West Indies' captain, made 113.