Pedestrians Still Fail To See The Path

A NUMBER OF PEDESTRIANS
Continue to suffer injuries at the hands of drivers, although less severe than in the past.
In spite of the severity of many cases, injuries continue to be suffered by people in traffic accidents.

FOUR PERFORMANCES WILL be given of Selections from Charles Bunting’s Week. On Saturday, May 25th, at 8.30 p.m. and Sunday, May 26th, at 3.15 p.m., the programme will be given by the Mobile Orchestra.

Students on the Cape Vale area of Christ Church will not be able to attend due to school commitments.

="Before the officers measure—.forward the men who sent an unannounced parol containing this little piece of wire."

EIGHT MOTORISTS were charged with speeding and reckless driving.

Barbers Also Have
Tragic Strokes

A recent inspection of the city salons revealed many of the bars along the streets where
the public could buy the combwhile coloured.

"There are no brushes to be had there." A man said.

Our previous barber told the
same story.

New Salons

The S.S. Alcoa Puritan also
sailed from this port yesterday
with a load of coal for England.

GUIDE NOTES

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. T. W. Archer entertained the people with a recital of her own compositions.

FROM DRINKING IMPORTS

The 4,291 tonnage S.S. Seaside
also sailed from this port.

THE 4,291 tonnage S.S. Seaside is the last vessel to leave for England.

Barber owned by William Lynch who rides without lamps. He has been arrested.

A casual inspection of the city
clocks revealed many of the
bars along the streets where
the public could buy the blades.

"There are no blades to be
had there," a man said.

Our previous barber told the
same story.

New Salons

The S.S. Alcoa Puritan also
sailed from this port yesterday
with a load of coal for England.

GUIDE NOTES

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. T. W. Archer entertained the people with a recital of her own compositions.

FROM DRINKING IMPORTS

The 4,291 tonnage S.S. Seaside
also sailed from this port.

THE 4,291 tonnage S.S. Seaside is the last vessel to leave for England.

Barber owned by William Lynch who rides without lamps. He has been arrested.

A casual inspection of the city
clocks revealed many of the
bars along the streets where
the public could buy the blades.

"There are no blades to be
had there," a man said.

Our previous barber told the
same story.

New Salons

The S.S. Alcoa Puritan also
sailed from this port yesterday
with a load of coal for England.

GUIDE NOTES

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. T. W. Archer entertained the people with a recital of her own compositions.

FROM DRINKING IMPORTS

The 4,291 tonnage S.S. Seaside
also sailed from this port.

THE 4,291 tonnage S.S. Seaside is the last vessel to leave for England.

Barber owned by William Lynch who rides without lamps. He has been arrested.

A casual inspection of the city
clocks revealed many of the
bars along the streets where
the public could buy the blades.

"There are no blades to be
had there," a man said.

Our previous barber told the
same story.

New Salons

The S.S. Alcoa Puritan also
sailed from this port yesterday
with a load of coal for England.

GUIDE NOTES

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. T. W. Archer entertained the people with a recital of her own compositions.

FROM DRINKING IMPORTS

The 4,291 tonnage S.S. Seaside
also sailed from this port.

THE 4,291 tonnage S.S. Seaside is the last vessel to leave for England.

Barber owned by William Lynch who rides without lamps. He has been arrested.

A casual inspection of the city
clocks revealed many of the
bars along the streets where
the public could buy the blades.

"There are no blades to be
had there," a man said.

Our previous barber told the
same story.

New Salons

The S.S. Alcoa Puritan also
sailed from this port yesterday
with a load of coal for England.

GUIDE NOTES

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. T. W. Archer entertained the people with a recital of her own compositions.

FROM DRINKING IMPORTS

The 4,291 tonnage S.S. Seaside
also sailed from this port.

THE 4,291 tonnage S.S. Seaside is the last vessel to leave for England.

Barber owned by William Lynch who rides without lamps. He has been arrested.

A casual inspection of the city
clocks revealed many of the
bars along the streets where
the public could buy the blades.

"There are no blades to be
had there," a man said.

Our previous barber told the
same story.

New Salons

The S.S. Alcoa Puritan also
sailed from this port yesterday
with a load of coal for England.