These Men Delight Millions

The image contains an advertisement for "These Men Delight Millions." It features a photograph of three men, with text highlighting their accomplishments. The advertisement is for a performance or event involving these individuals, likely in a theatrical or musical context. The text mentions that they can be seen "on the whole," implying they are part of a touring act. The advertisement uses the word "signals" in a metaphorical sense.

"Caribbean Voices"

The image contains an advertisement for "Caribbean Voices." It features a photograph of two women and a man, with text highlighting their musical skills. The advertisement is for a performance or event involving these individuals, likely in a musical context. The text mentions that they are "pouring out their music" and are "like vocal instruments." The advertisement uses the phrase "in the background."