NEHRU

From page 3

WAS DAMAGE CLAIMS AGAINST ITALY, HUNGARY, ROMANIA AND BELGAIHA

For the information of those owners of property in Italy, Hungary, Romania, or Belgium, who have to the past claim that their property was damaged in those territories but who have not yet submitted the claim, this is to say that the following steps are to be taken in order to file claims:

1. The claim must be submitted to the Director of the

Emigration Department, Department of External Affairs,

New Delhi.

2. The claim should be submitted with the claimant's

name, address, and a statement of the property involved,

including a description of the property and an estimate

of its value.

3. The claim should be submitted with supporting documents, such as photographs, drawings, or other evidence that will support the claim.

4. The claim should be submitted with appropriate claims forms and explanatory notes.

5. If the claimant wishes to make use of the facilities described above, they should write to the Ministry of External Affairs, Department of

External Affairs, New Delhi.

6. If the claimant should fail to claim compensation under the Peace Treaties, they should write to the Ministry of External Affairs, Department of

External Affairs, New Delhi.

The right of claimants is subject to satisfaction of certain requirements by the Ministry of External Affairs, as provided by the Peace Treaties.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

No Instructions

U.K. Withdraws Backing

As from today, the United Kingdom will no longer

support the United Nations in its efforts to prevent the admission of China to the United Nations.

This decision was taken after careful consideration of the situation in China and the United Kingdom's

interests.

Soviets Aid Red Chinese

When the Red Chinese entered the Soviet Union in 1945, they were aided by the Soviet Union in their efforts to secure domestic

peace and stability.

PEARSALL ARRIVES

Mr. L. Pearsall, Canadian Ambassador to the United Nations, arrived in London on

February 2, 1950.

INTERIOR DECORATOR

Mrs. H. Smith, Interior Decorator for

the United Nations, arrived in London on February 2, 1950.

COMMENTARY

For the information of British owners of property in

Italy, Hungary, Romania, and Belgium, this is to say that the following steps are to be taken in order to file claims:

1. The claim must be submitted to the Director of the

Emigration Department, Department of External Affairs,

New Delhi.

2. The claim should be submitted with the claimant's

name, address, and a statement of the property involved,

including a description of the property and an estimate

of its value.

3. The claim should be submitted with supporting documents, such as photographs, drawings, or other

evidence that will support the claim.

4. The claim should be submitted with appropriate

claims forms and explanatory notes.

5. If the claimant wishes to make use of the facilities described above, they should write to the Ministry of External Affairs, Department of

External Affairs, New Delhi.

6. If the claimant should fail to claim compensation under the Peace Treaties, they should write to the Ministry of External Affairs, Department of

External Affairs, New Delhi.

The right of claimants is subject to satisfaction of certain

requirements by the Ministry of External Affairs, as provided by the Peace Treaties.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

No Instructions

U.K. Withdraws Backing

As from today, the United Kingdom will no longer

support the United Nations in its efforts to prevent the admission of China to the United Nations.

This decision was taken after careful consideration of the situation in China and the United Kingdom's

interests.

Soviets Aid Red Chinese

When the Red Chinese entered the Soviet Union in 1945, they were aided by the Soviet Union in their efforts to secure domestic

peace and stability.

PEARSALL ARRIVES

Mr. L. Pearsall, Canadian Ambassador to the

United Nations, arrived in London on

February 2, 1950.

INTERIOR DECORATOR

Mrs. H. Smith, Interior Decorator for

the United Nations, arrived in London on

February 2, 1950.

COMMENTARY

For the information of British owners of property in

Italy, Hungary, Romania, and Belgium, this

is to say that the following steps are to be taken in order to file claims:

1. The claim must be submitted to the Director of the

Emigration Department, Department of External Affairs,

New Delhi.

2. The claim should be submitted with the claimant's

name, address, and a statement of the property involved,

including a description of the property and an estimate

of its value.

3. The claim should be submitted with supporting documents, such as photographs, drawings, or other

evidence that will support the claim.

4. The claim should be submitted with appropriate

claims forms and explanatory notes.

5. If the claimant wishes to make use of the facilities described above, they should write to the Ministry of External Affairs, Department of

External Affairs, New Delhi.

6. If the claimant should fail to claim compensation under the Peace Treaties, they should write to the Ministry of External Affairs, Department of

External Affairs, New Delhi.

The right of claimants is subject to satisfaction of certain

requirements by the Ministry of External Affairs, as

provided by the Peace Treaties.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

No Instructions

U.K. Withdraws Backing

As from today, the United Kingdom will no longer

support the United Nations in its efforts to prevent the admission of China to the United Nations.

This decision was taken after careful consideration of the situation in China and the United Kingdom's

interests.

Soviets Aid Red Chinese

When the Red Chinese entered the Soviet Union in 1945, they were aided by the Soviet Union in their efforts to secure domestic

peace and stability.

PEARSALL ARRIVES

Mr. L. Pearsall, Canadian Ambassador to the United Nations, arrived in London on

February 2, 1950.

INTERIOR DECORATOR

Mrs. H. Smith, Interior Decorator for

the United Nations, arrived in London on February 2, 1950.