Carleton Club Beats Lodge In Soccer

Playing their first purpose game under the coaching of Football Fanciers, the Carleton Club defeated their hosts the Lodge Cricket Club at the Grenville Grounds yesterday by an innings and 50 runs. The score was 255 for 7 against 205. L. De Ville (40) and V. Andrews (30) were the chief contributors to the Carleton score, while R. G. Williams and F. B. Hutchinson were the best of the Lodge bowlers.

Sidelines

Conferences on the starting post. However, the complexion playfully added to the queues on Princes Elizabeth has now been made a reality for the Grand National next month. Excitement has been in the air for the past A. Graham - Empress.
