Seeking Truth

The VISIT to this colony of Sir Alfred Plantagenet Martyn was the occasion of a great number of conferences and meetings. The first time it has been announced that the sociological problems of the West Indies would be subjected to scientific investigation by the Institute of Economic Development. The British West Indies have been condemned by colonial Administrators as among the backward peoples of the world. It is for this reason that the scientific investigation of the social and economic conditions of the area will be welcomed by all those who have the interest of West Indian peoples at heart.

Truth is always welcome and it is good to note that the result of these investigations was published in the form of a report. The publication of such reports as may be written will do good except to create greater rancour in the minds of those concerned therein.

Such investigations have been made in all parts of the world and even when they pointed to definite conclusions, the authors were accused of politico-biased judgment prevailing political considerations are to be disregarded.

In the same way that the British West Indies is undertaking the conditions of labour and the methods of industry in the West Indies. This is the only way that the British West Indies can be adequately guided whether the West Indies can support the ever-increasing population. It must be decided whether population movements should be the same as those that have been recently considered by the British Commonweal, to supply the rover to the lower class. The sociological investigations by Dr. Huggins' third series will show the interest of West Indian peoples to have a better equipped in specific departments of the government for an economic better opportunity.

The goal of West Indian ambition is to defeat England at her own game. It follows that all will keep back these details of the investigation of the condition of the British West Indies and its problems and to be magnanimous in victory. These traditions Captain Goddard and his men will uphold in their own time.

West Indies cricket is now a new tradition. The names of Harold Austin, George Chalcroft, Tim Barlow, F. B. Martin, Dewi, E. L. Barlow, J. H. Williams, G. G. B. D. Griffith, George Francis and T. S. Simey and Dr. Eric Williams. The visit of a West Indies Cricket team to England is an occasion of great moment. It is in honor of the outstanding experiences of the game to go do battle against stereotypes for which cricket is a religion.

But if the West Indies have lost the giants from sociological inquiries it should not be because of the form of statistical data or findings that the Standing Committee of the United States has long thought to be the right way of handling matters. It is for this reason that the scientific investigations have come to be.

Truth is always welcome and it is good to note that the result of these investigations was published in the form of a report. The publication of such reports as may be written will do good except to create greater rancour in the minds of those concerned therein.
