Hurricane Pictures From Barbuda

Pictures on the left depict some scenes from the windward area.

Top—A collapsed building, in which people are still living.

Second—Wharf left of Codrington village.

Third—Warden's Home. Refugees collecting rations.

Fourth—Pigeon House. In this Reservoir aves used to draw water for master, mistress, and their families.

Top (Right) What's left of three houses.

More Caribbean Storm Damage

Barbuda, a dependency of the British West Indies, which comprises the easternmost island in the Leeward Group, has been badly damaged by the hurricane, which devastated the nearby island of Antigua. The destruction is widespread, and it is reported that the entire island has been left in a state of acute poverty.

Motor Cyclist Killed in Crash

A motorcyclist was killed in a crash near the town of Codrington, Antigua. He was hit by a car while riding on the main road. The driver of the car has been arrested and charged with causing death by reckless driving.

Vendor Wins $14,004

A vendor from St. Kitts has won the first prize in a local lottery. The lottery was organized to raise funds for a new community center. The vendor, who is a former teacher, was overjoyed to receive the prize.

In every part of the world... this is the surest sign of excellence in a bicycle

The Humber bicycle is a product of long years of research and development. The World's leading quality bicycle makes its mark on every continent.