TRUMAN PLANS FOR PEACE IN PACIFIC

BY PAUL SCOTT-WAKINS

WAKE ISLAND, October 21.

President Truman and General Douglas MacArthur have produced a "Pacific Doctrine," comparable in importance to the 1947 "Truman Doctrine," Washington observers believe. The "Truman Doctrine," advanced at Cairo, Turkey and other Middle East countries to help fight Communism.

The new "Pacific Doctrine" cannot be officially attributed to the Wake Island Conference because under the United States constitution, no one can speak for the President in responsibility for formulating foreign policy.
