French Premier Can't Ride a Bicycle

By THOMAS BARROS

At last, in one of the great pranks of the political season, Louis Strauss, the French Premier, has been caught on a bicycle. He had been seen riding one, although it was not in the usual manner, but in the Italian style. The Italian style is said to be more of a challenge to the ordinary cyclist, who has to hold on with both hands, but it is easier for Strauss, who is said to havearty hands, to hold on with both hands.

According to the Italian authorities, Strauss was trying out a new model of bicycle which he had just purchased. He had been warned by his advisors not to ride it, but he said that he was determined to try it out anyway.

When the authorities saw him, they were horrified. They had thought that he was just a simple man who liked to ride a bicycle, but now they realize that he is a political leader who likes to use unusual methods to get his point across. They have decided to ban him from riding any more bicycles, and to make him take an examination in Italian politics before he can vote on any important legislation.

While Strauss was being taken away, his supporters rallied around him. They said that he was just a simple man who likes to ride a bicycle, and that he should not be punished for it. They are planning to hold a rally in his honor, and to ask for his release.

Workers Wages Highest Ever

Krupp Produce 500 Tanks Per Month

In South Korea Plans To Go Guerrilla North

By WILLIAM PARROT

British manual workers are being paid £1 12s. 8d. a week, a rise of 2s. 6d. per week, to cover the cost of the increase in living expenses. The workers were being paid £1 10s. 0d. a week before the rise was announced.

The Krupp steel works in Nuremberg have been producing 500 tanks per month. The works have been operated by the German Government since the end of the war and are being used to produce tanks and other military equipment.

South Korea Plans To Go Guerrilla North

The South Korean Government has decided to go on the offensive against the North Koreans. The South Korean Government has been under attack from the North Koreans, who have been trying to overrun the South Korean territory. The South Korean Government has been trying to defend its territory, but it has been unable to do so, and has been forced to retreat.

The South Korean Government has been advised by its advisors to go on the offensive against the North Koreans. The South Korean Government has been advised that it is the only way to win the war.

In London in August 1949, the British Government announced a new revenue policy. It is expected to raise £1 12s. 8d. a week, a rise of 2s. 6d. per week, to cover the cost of the increase in living expenses.