Thieves Make $160 Haul

O'FRIDAY thieves made off with a quantity of goods and money at Robert's Department Store, Graham Street, East. A former employee of the establishment, who was known to the police, was arrested with some of the stolen property.

The large crowd that assembled at the store this morning included many of the workers, who witnessed the theft. Police said they were confident of a quick arrest.

A large crowd also assembled at the scene of the crime, which took place in the store's back room. The thieves were described as a group of men and women, including a child.

The thieves entered the store through a skylight and made off with a quantity of goods and money. They were last seen in the direction of Graham Street.

Police believe that the thieves were well-organized and that they may have been planning the robbery for some time.

The theft is being investigated by Detective Inspector Smith, who has appealed for information from the public.
