U.S.A. Plan 4 More Army Divisions For Europe

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18

The United States plans to send four additional Army divisions to Europe, Defence Secretary Marshall disclosed today. Marshall told a joint hearing of the Senate Foreign and Armed Services Committees: "I have obtained the express permission of the President to discuss with you the specific strength of the ground forces which the United States has planned to maintain in Europe."

Colonials Will Not Solve U.K. Problem

From the Greek Parliament it was reported today that the Government would not allow any further British control in the Greek Islands. Negotiations for an agreement between the British and Greek Governments on the matter were already under way. British observers said that the British Government had been advised by the Greek Parliament that the question of the British presence in the Greek Islands would be referred to the House of Commons for discussion. British observers said that the British Government had been advised by the Greek Parliament that the question of the British presence in the Greek Islands would be referred to the House of Commons for discussion.

Another Bridge Washed Away

IN ST. ANDREW

FOR the past few days the British Government has had steady rains. These rains are not only affecting the crops but are also giving rise to fears of flooding. The rain has caused many landslides, and has completely washed away some bridges. The Government has ordered the evacuation of some areas in order to avoid further damage.

British May Get Meat From Germany

FRANKFURT, Feb. 13

The British Government has agreed to purchase meat from Germany. The agreement was reached after a series of negotiations between British and German representatives. The meat will be used to feed the troops in the Middle East.

Secretary Marshall Disclosed Today

The Secretary of Defence, Mr. Marshall, disclosed today that the United States plans to send four more Army divisions to Europe. He said that the United States has planned to maintain a strength of four divisions in Europe, and that this strength would be increased to six divisions if necessary.

U.K. Government Win 'No Confidence' Debate By Twenty-one Votes

LONDON, Feb. 18

The Labour Government tonight defeated with a 21 vote majority a Bill by Mr. Churchill's Conservatives to overthrow it on a motion of no confidence. The Government was supported by the Liberal Party, but the Conservative opposition was divided. Six of the nine members of the Liberal Party voted with the Government. The motion was defeated 306 to 285.

French Chief Acquited

PARIS, Feb. 13

Chief of the French military forces in Indochina, General de Gaulle, was acquitted by a military court of charges of alleged war crimes. The court found that there was insufficient evidence to prove the charges.

Reds Accuse Pleven of Treason

PARIS, Feb. 18

The French government has accused General Pleven of treason. The government has denounced General Pleven's activities as "treasonable" and has urged him to resign. The government has also threatened to take action against General Pleven if he does not resign.

British May Send Four More Divisions to Europe

BRISTOL, Feb. 18

British Prime Minister Attlee announced today that the British Government plans to send four more Army divisions to Europe. He said that this would bring the total strength of British forces in Europe to six divisions.

U.S.A. Plan 4 More Army Divisions For Europe

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18

The United States plans to send four additional Army divisions to Europe, Defence Secretary Marshall disclosed today. Marshall told a joint hearing of the Senate Foreign and Armed Services Committees: "I have obtained the express permission of the President to discuss with you the specific strength of the ground forces which the United States has planned to maintain in Europe."

Colonials Will Not Solve U.K. Problem

From the Greek Parliament it was reported today that the Government would not allow any further British control in the Greek Islands. Negotiations for an agreement between the British and Greek Governments on the matter were already under way. British observers said that the British Government had been advised by the Greek Parliament that the question of the British presence in the Greek Islands would be referred to the House of Commons for discussion. British observers said that the British Government had been advised by the Greek Parliament that the question of the British presence in the Greek Islands would be referred to the House of Commons for discussion.

Another Bridge Washed Away

IN ST. ANDREW

FOR the past few days the British Government has had steady rains. These rains are not only affecting the crops but are also giving rise to fears of flooding. The rain has caused many landslides, and has completely washed away some bridges. The Government has ordered the evacuation of some areas in order to avoid further damage.

British May Get Meat From Germany

FRANKFURT, Feb. 13

The British Government has agreed to purchase meat from Germany. The agreement was reached after a series of negotiations between British and German representatives. The meat will be used to feed the troops in the Middle East.

Secretary Marshall Disclosed Today

The Secretary of Defence, Mr. Marshall, disclosed today that the United States plans to send four more Army divisions to Europe. He said that the United States has planned to maintain a strength of four divisions in Europe, and that this strength would be increased to six divisions if necessary.

U.K. Government Win 'No Confidence' Debate By Twenty-one Votes

LONDON, Feb. 18

The Labour Government tonight defeated with a 21 vote majority a Bill by Mr. Churchill's Conservatives to overthrow it on a motion of no confidence. The Government was supported by the Liberal Party, but the Conservative opposition was divided. Six of the nine members of the Liberal Party voted with the Government. The motion was defeated 306 to 285.

French Chief Acquited

PARIS, Feb. 13

Chief of the French military forces in Indochina, General de Gaulle, was acquitted by a military court of charges of alleged war crimes. The court found that there was insufficient evidence to prove the charges.

Reds Accuse Pleven of Treason

PARIS, Feb. 18

The French government has accused General Pleven of treason. The government has denounced General Pleven's activities as "treasonable" and has urged him to resign. The government has also threatened to take action against General Pleven if he does not resign.

British May Send Four More Divisions to Europe

BRISTOL, Feb. 18

British Prime Minister Attlee announced today that the British Government plans to send four more Army divisions to Europe. He said that this would bring the total strength of British forces in Europe to six divisions.