NON-SETTLEMENT MAY WEAKEN FREE WORLD
—U.S. WARNS

LONDON, May 26
THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT and the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company took simultaneous but separate action in The Hague today to place
the Persian oil dispute before the International Court of Justice.

day's moves, taken to safeguard Britain's legal position, do nothing to warrant settlement by direct negotiations with the Persian Government.
If the Persian Government rejects the offer made in this British note to The Hague, it is stated, it will be void at any time.
