THE LUTHERAN CHURCH
By James F. Brathwaitc
The Lutheran Church in Barbados has a rich history dating back to the early 19th century. The congregation is committed to spreading the message of Christ to the nations. During the year 1930, the church was instrumental in bringing the "Bringing Christ to the Nations" programme to Barbados.

Lutheran preacher T.W.E. WORRELL

The Lutheran Church is not only a spiritual institution, but a social one as well. It has brought about the "Establishment of Right Relations" programme, aimed at healing the wounds of the past and creating for eternal life. The church teaches that everything in the world is a result of human sin and depravity, and the only way to escape this is through faith in Jesus Christ.

No Ships
In Antigua

Antigua has been experiencing heavy rainfall, making it difficult for ships to dock. However, the church continues to operate institutions and provide many services to the community despite the challenges.
