BY THE WAY

BY REBECCA

A MAN who complained that a change of name, from his birth name to his married one, did not make him feel any happier, is reported to have been dressed in his Sunday suit and to have said to a friend, "I don't feel any happier. If you didn't know I was married, you wouldn't know it." Nothing to do with his name.

What is Tolstoy?

SUN., and Caldwell never knew what "Mr. Tolstoy" was like, until the day they met him. He was a very nice man.

About Oats

CALLED to a renewal of the 30s. century teaching, I am pleased to say that no one has ever claimed that oats are the best food for the human species, as it is a common belief in Barbados.
