Barbados Advocate

Saturday, June 8, 1951

Page Three

---

Work Almost Completed

When the Avenue Museum is opened on Wednesday, the world of Barbados will have an avenue to heaven, for the museum is designed to be a place of refuge and a haven for the soul. The building, which is situated on the site of the old market house, will be opened to the public on Wednesday afternoon.

---

Hurricane Record Last Year

PORTO-SPANISH, June 3

Eleven storms of full hurricane force were reported for a season that would have been described as normal, according to Mr. Robert H. Marx, the Director of the U.S. Weather Bureau. Mr. Marx is attending a Hurricane meeting in the representative of Regional Meteorological Organizations.

---

Commonwealth Baptist Convalescent Home Opens in London

LONDON, June 4

More than 1,000 Commonwealth Baptists attended a service of dedication yesterday at the Commonwealth Baptist Convalescent Home, which is located in the heart of the city.

---

Homes Provided for Workers in Leaderstown

The Barbados Government has announced that it will provide 100 homes for workers in Leaderstown, a new industrial estate located on the east coast of the island.

---

New Nurses' Home For St. Vincent

Mrs. M. A. Nichols, the Principal of the St. Vincent Hospital, has announced the opening of a new nurses' home, which will provide accommodation for 50 nurses.

---

Colonialists Find An Unfriendly London

LONDON

Twenty-students were interned in the London College of Commerce during the week, but they received special permission to attend the opening of the Festival, the Colonists' College, which was attended by the Ministry of Education and the Colonial Secretary. The students are from the Commonwealth Caribbean.

---

Hurricane Record Last Year

PORTO-SPANISH, June 3

Eleven storms of full hurricane force were reported for a season that would have been described as normal, according to Mr. Robert H. Marx, the Director of the U.S. Weather Bureau. Mr. Marx is attending a Hurricane meeting in the representative of Regional Meteorological Organizations.

---

First Will Be Made Saints

VATICAN CITY, June 4

The Pope has declared that the first six men and women to be canonized as saints will be Pius XII, the first pope of the new millennium.

---

Fined For Speeding

Two drivers were fined by a City Police Magistrate on Wednesday for exceeding the speed limit.

---

Jailed For Begging

Katherine G. Taylor and J. B. Clarke, both of the Ministry of Health in Barbados, were sentenced to six months in prison for begging in the streets of Bridgetown.

---

Yardley of London invite you to meet

Miss Barbara Grant

Grant's Beauty Consultant

met with the Royal Family.

---

Harbour Log

In Carlisle Bay

A new yacht, the "Barbados" has been launched in Carlisle Bay.

---

Make KLM Your Airline in the Caribbean

North and South, East and West, KLM routes cover the Caribbean territory more than six thousand miles. Twenty different cities are brought within hours of each other by fast, luxurious service. Make KLM your airline in the West Indies and enjoy the same five meals and superb service that have made KLM famous throughout the world.

---

KLM

For Information Call
S. P. MUNroe & Co. Ltd.
Bridgetown.