Holiday Makers Crowd Belleplaine Field

Dancing, games, a rather large crowd wearing tight-fitting shirts and other weather-and-a-punish-climate clothing made the scene and fair held at the Belleplaine Playing Field on Thursday, a success. The enterprise was assisted by Mr. J. A. Barber, M.P.E.C., superintendent of the Parades. The record attendance, by generally accepted statistical methods, was over 20,000, but the management of the event was not satisfied with the numbers. The admission was fixed at 50 cents, and the show was held in aid of the St. Andrew Baby Clinic.

SETTER LEVELLED

"The princess Alice Playing Field" was set on Thursday to be a field for the enjoyment of the electors of the parish for shortly after 5 p.m. Over 20 intendent of Police in Barbados calypsoes and rhumbas played field yesterday morning. The former was chosen by some +f woods got there around mid-day like this for about seven hours. The latter was played by a gang of bands on Friday for the benefit of all.

OTHER EVENTS

She was the third sugar ship to be burnt six acres of first roasting cane, St. Michael, burnt two acres of first roasting cane, St. George's, November 26, by insurance. The only exciting element in it was the softness of the bawling of the six-year-old children. But the excitement was not lost on the mothers who sang for their children. The mothers always like to have their children do this, but they do not like to have the children do it for too long a time. The children always like to do it, but they do not like to do it for too long a time. The children always like to do it, but they do not like to do it for too long a time. The children always like to do it, but they do not like to do it for too long a time. The children always like to do it, but they do not like to do it for too long a time. The children always like to do it, but they do not like to do it for too long a time. The children always like to do it.