ST. THOMAS VESTRY

Churchwarden Asked About Money Distribution

ST. THOMAS VESTRY will require whether it would be in the best interests of the Vestry to remove the furniture of Mr. J. Smith, in order to raise some money for the vestry. The matter was referred to the Vestry.

The Rev. S. Collins suggested that the Vestry might look into the possibility of removing the furniture of Mr. J. Smith, as it was agreed that the furniture should be removed to the Community Centre, and that it would be possible to sell it for a small sum.

Mr. J. Smith was asked if he would agree to the removal of his furniture while the work was being done, and he agreed to do so.
