Lessons Of Water Polo Tour
Trinidad Has Improved

By PAUL FOSTER

Four glittering prizes have emerged from the international water polo tournament just ended at the Trinidad Yacht Club between Barbados and Trinidad.

The titles of the four main Barbados teams have all been taken by the Barbados teams. The Barbados teams have been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches. The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches. The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches. The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches.

The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches. The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches. The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches. The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches.

The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches. The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches. The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches. The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches.

The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches. The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches. The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches. The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches.

The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches. The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches. The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches. The Barbados teams have all been led by serious training under the guidance of their national coaches.