A CHALLENGE

The desire of the British Government for constitutional development in the West Indies has been frustrated by the West Indies League, which has achieved its aims by increasingly radical action. The strike has been an example of this, and it has shown that the League is prepared to go to any length to achieve its objectives. The West Indians are determined to have a voice in their own affairs, and they will not be satisfied until they have obtained it.

S.P.C.A.

The S.P.C.A. has been active in the West Indies, and it has been effective in bringing about changes in the treatment of animals. The S.P.C.A. has been able to convince the public of the importance of animal welfare, and it has been able to bring about changes in the law. The S.P.C.A. has been able to show that there is a need for a more effective regulation of animal welfare, and it has been able to convince the public of the need for this.

Sitting On The Fence

BY NATHANIEL GUNNIS

The weather in the West Indies is often hot and humid, and the heat can be oppressive. It is important to take precautions to protect yourself from the heat and to stay cool in the summer months.

The Jamaica Hurricane

The hurricane in Jamaica was a devastating event, and it caused significant damage to the island. The S.P.C.A. was able to respond quickly and effectively to the disaster, and it was able to provide assistance to those who were affected by the hurricane.

An Enquiry Needed

Mr. A. James, writing to the Advocate, said that he had written to the West Indies Government about the possibility of starting a weekly newspaper in Barbados. He was informed that the Government had no intention of starting a newspaper, but he was still interested in the idea.

W.I. IN AUSTRALIA

Yesterday the West Indies cricket team arrived in Australia for a one-day benefit match for the Prime Minister. The match is expected to be a very good one, and it is likely to be a very interesting one.

Paints

The best paints are those that are scientifically produced, not only to last a long time, but also to ensure that the paint is kept in good condition. Every type and colour of paint should be used in the correct way, and this will ensure that the paint will last for a long time.
