Good Attendance At Missionary Service

A large portion of the handy attended the Annual Missionary service which was held at the Empire Theatre on Friday afternoon. In the address the Lord Bishop said:

"... After the service had commenced, and the collection box was placed in the hands of the Bishop, the entire congregation rose, and the Bishop pronounced the benediction. The service was well attended, and the collection box was filled with contributions. The Bishop concluded his address by expressing his gratitude for the good attendance and encouraging the congregation to continue their support of the Missionary work."

Man Saved From Drowning

Jack Johnson, a well-known American athlete, was saved from drowning in the Danube river on Thursday afternoon. He was swimming with a friend when he suddenlyrowed into a whirlpool and was swept away by the current. His friend, John Brown, who was with him, immediately jumped in and swam to him, bringing him to the surface. Johnson was taken to the hospital where he was treated for shock. He is reported to be in good condition and will make a complete recovery.

End Of Term At St. Mark's Girls' School

The final examination commenced on Monday, and the results will be announced next week. The school is now preparing for the Christmas holidays. The pupils have been very industrious, and the results are expected to be excellent. The Headmistress expressed her gratitude to the parents for their co-operation and wished all the pupils a happy Christmas.

THE SALVATION ARMY ANNUAL SOCIAL WORK APPEAL

A band of Salvation Army girls made a successful appeal for donations on the high street today. They were led by Mrs. Smith, who spoke of the difficulties faced by the Army in carrying on its work. Many people contributed generously, including Mr. Johnson, who gave £5.

Man Saved From Drowning

In the Danube river on Thursday afternoon, Jack Johnson, a well-known American athlete, was saved from drowning by his friend John Brown. Johnson was swimming with Brown when he suddenlyrowed into a whirlpool and was swept away by the current. Brown immediately jumped in and swam to him, bringing him to the surface. Johnson was treated for shock at the hospital and is reported to be in good condition.

For those Special Occasions, order your EVENING SUIT Early

You can be sure of a Perfect fit by P. C. S. MAFFEI & CO. LTD.

For C. B. RICE & CO. MERCHANT TAILORS OF BOLTON LANE

Good Attendance At Missionary Service

A large portion of the handy attended the Annual Missionary service which was held at the Empire Theatre on Friday afternoon. In the address the Lord Bishop said:

"... After the service had commenced, and the collection box was placed in the hands of the Bishop, the entire congregation rose, and the Bishop pronounced the benediction. The service was well attended, and the collection box was filled with contributions. The Bishop concluded his address by expressing his gratitude for the good attendance and encouraging the congregation to continue their support of the Missionary work."

Man Saved From Drowning

Jack Johnson, a well-known American athlete, was saved from drowning in the Danube river on Thursday afternoon. He was swimming with a friend when he suddenlyrowed into a whirlpool and was swept away by the current. His friend, John Brown, who was with him, immediately jumped in and swam to him, bringing him to the surface. Johnson was taken to the hospital where he was treated for shock. He is reported to be in good condition and will make a complete recovery.

End Of Term At St. Mark's Girls' School

The final examination commenced on Monday, and the results will be announced next week. The school is now preparing for the Christmas holidays. The pupils have been very industrious, and the results are expected to be excellent. The Headmistress expressed her gratitude to the parents for their co-operation and wished all the pupils a happy Christmas.

THE SALVATION ARMY ANNUAL SOCIAL WORK APPEAL

A band of Salvation Army girls made a successful appeal for donations on the high street today. They were led by Mrs. Smith, who spoke of the difficulties faced by the Army in carrying on its work. Many people contributed generously, including Mr. Johnson, who gave £5.

Man Saved From Drowning

In the Danube river on Thursday afternoon, Jack Johnson, a well-known American athlete, was saved from drowning by his friend John Brown. Johnson was swimming with Brown when he suddenlyrowed into a whirlpool and was swept away by the current. Brown immediately jumped in and swam to him, bringing him to the surface. Johnson was treated for shock at the hospital and is reported to be in good condition.