Trade Union Leaders Must Give People A Fair Deal

Future Of W.I. Can Rest With Them

DECLARING the twelve-week Trade Union Course open at the Y.M.C.A. yesterday morning, Sir George Scott, Head of the Colonial Development and Welfare Corporation in the West Indies, told the students attending the Course that if they continued in their duty of trying to bring about the necessary changes in the political and economic life of the islands, that they might be instrumental in bringing about the future of the West Indies.

Sir George added: "I do hope you will want to lend them in the direction of building up a really good people in the West Indies. I wish you every possible success during the Course."

The course, the second of its kind to be held in Barbados, has been made possible by a further grant under the Colonial Development and Welfare Corporation, which is being allocated by the British Government to help the development of the West Indies industrially and agriculturally. The course is being conducted by Mr. F. F. Cartwright, Labour Adviser to Colonial Development and Welfare.

MAIL FOR THE "OLIVE BLOSSOM"

A POSTMAN who delivered mail yesterday to the "Olive Blossom" described a fire at 9:30 p.m. yesterday in a house in the area. He said he saw smoke coming from the house and called the fire department.

West Reject Soviet Proposals

By A. C. ORR

LONDON, March 23

The Big Four, which includes the United States, Britain, France and Russia, have rejected a proposal by the Soviet Union to send a representative to the United Nations Special Committee on the Peaceful Use of Atomic Energy.

The Soviet proposal was submitted to the United Nations General Assembly last week, and has been accepted by the United States, Britain, France and China.

"Strong Steps" Urged Against Dr. Malan

CAPETOWN, March 23

A motion was passed in the House of Assembly yesterday in support of the United States Department of State's call for "strong steps" to be taken against Dr. Malan.

The motion was moved by Mr. J. F. Malan, the Minister of Education, and seconded by Mr. J. F. C. Catchpole, Labour Adviser to Colonial Development and Welfare.

Queen Will Visit Scotland in June

(BOY ROBERT MUNEL

LONDON, March 23

Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth is due to visit Scotland in June, according to a statement made by the Foreign Office yesterday.

The Queen will arrive in Edinburgh on June 11, and will be welcomed by the Duke of Edinburgh.

Attlee Wins Vote Of Confidence

LONDON, March 25

Premier Clement Attlee won a vote of confidence in the House of Commons yesterday by a majority of 13 votes.

The motion, moved by Mr. N. A. Smith, was supported by 259 Members of Parliament and opposed by 26 Members.

Three Steal $600,000

BOSTON, March 25

Three men were arrested yesterday for the robbery of $600,000 from the Federal Reserve Bank.

The robbery was reported to have occurred at 3:30 a.m.

Federation Now Will Not Aid W.I.

(From Our Own Correspondent)

LONDON, March 25

Federation now will not help the West Indies, instead a treat to political upheaval in Britain is in sight that the changes which have already been made can be digested.

The news was communicated to the Daily Telegraph by Mr. C. E. Sheppard, a retired lawyer whose experiences in the West Indies went back over 30 years and who until last year had been living in Barbados.

Terrorists Kill Twelve

SINGAPORE, March 25

Twelve people were killed in a terrorist attack on a government building in Singapore yesterday.

The attack was carried out by members of the Communist party of Malaysia.

Conservatives Defeat Labour Motion

LONDON, March 25

The Conservative Party won a motion in the House of Commons yesterday by a majority of 13 votes.

The motion, moved by Mr. N. A. Smith, was supported by 259 Members of Parliament and opposed by 26 Members.

And I've smoked them ever since!

"You're too late to know, Baxter. The time to smoke is now."

"We do our best to please, Baxter. But may I be frank? today is not the day for you."

"Yes, Sir. I'm afraid you're right."

"And I've smoked them ever since!"