3 Ex-world Champions Offer Olympic Help

But The Amateurs Remain Cautious

By GEORGE WHITING

RANSOM and Primrose Mills and Terry Allen are among the ex-world champions who have offered their services at the disposal of Britain's Olympic Team. The selection committee is naturally very gratified by these generous offers, but in view of the great pressure on the leading professionals, Mills and Allen must be ruled out of the Olympic Line-Up for now at least.

Empire Defeat Pickles-Rovers 3-1

In their 2nd Division fixture at Queen's Park yesterday, Empire defeated Pickles-Rovers by three goals to none. The game was very one-sided and combination was almost entirely lacking among the numbers of the winning side.

Savannah Club Tennis Tournament

Owing to no play being reported yesterday at the Savannah Club, the final sight tonight.

FOULS AND MISCONDUCT

A player who intentionally commits any of the following fouls or misconduct will be punished as provided by the Referee, or the team manager, or the Umpire, or the President of the B.A.F.A.:

1. Disorderly conduct.
2. Abusive language.
3. Committing any of the following.
   a. Pushing an opponent with following actions:
      (a) Pushing an opponent in the back or chest.
      (b) Pushing an opponent with the arm or hand.
      (c) Pushing an opponent with the head or elbow.
   b. Charging From Behind.
   c. Handles the ball, or causes the ball to be handled, by the opposing side from position of employment on the field.
   d. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   e. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   f. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   g. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   h. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   i. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   j. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   k. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   l. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   m. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   n. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   o. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   p. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   q. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   r. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   s. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   t. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   u. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   v. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   w. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   x. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   y. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   z. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.

3 Ex-world Champions Offer Olympic Help

But The Amateurs Remain Cautious

By GEORGE WHITING

RANSOM and Primrose Mills and Terry Allen are among the ex-world champions who have offered their services at the disposal of Britain's Olympic Team. The selection committee is naturally very gratified by these generous offers, but in view of the great pressure on the leading professionals, Mills and Allen must be ruled out of the Olympic Line-Up for now at least.

Empire Defeat Pickles-Rovers 3-1

In their 2nd Division fixture at Queen's Park yesterday, Empire defeated Pickles-Rovers by three goals to none. The game was very one-sided and combination was almost entirely lacking among the numbers of the winning side.

Savannah Club Tennis Tournament

Owing to no play being reported yesterday at the Savannah Club, the final sight tonight.

FOULS AND MISCONDUCT

A player who intentionally commits any of the following fouls or misconduct will be punished as provided by the Referee, or the team manager, or the Umpire, or the President of the B.A.F.A.:

1. Disorderly conduct.
2. Abusive language.
3. Committing any of the following.
   a. Pushing an opponent with following actions:
      (a) Pushing an opponent in the back or chest.
      (b) Pushing an opponent with the arm or hand.
      (c) Pushing an opponent with the head or elbow.
   b. Charging From Behind.
   c. Handles the ball, or causes the ball to be handled, by the opposing side from position of employment on the field.
   d. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   e. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   f. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   g. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   h. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   i. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   j. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   k. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   l. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   m. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   n. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   o. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   p. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   q. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   r. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   s. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   t. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   u. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   v. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   w. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   x. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   y. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   z. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.

3 Ex-world Champions Offer Olympic Help

But The Amateurs Remain Cautious

By GEORGE WHITING

RANSOM and Primrose Mills and Terry Allen are among the ex-world champions who have offered their services at the disposal of Britain's Olympic Team. The selection committee is naturally very gratified by these generous offers, but in view of the great pressure on the leading professionals, Mills and Allen must be ruled out of the Olympic Line-Up for now at least.

Empire Defeat Pickles-Rovers 3-1

In their 2nd Division fixture at Queen's Park yesterday, Empire defeated Pickles-Rovers by three goals to none. The game was very one-sided and combination was almost entirely lacking among the numbers of the winning side.

Savannah Club Tennis Tournament

Owing to no play being reported yesterday at the Savannah Club, the final sight tonight.

FOULS AND MISCONDUCT

A player who intentionally commits any of the following fouls or misconduct will be punished as provided by the Referee, or the team manager, or the Umpire, or the President of the B.A.F.A.:

1. Disorderly conduct.
2. Abusive language.
3. Committing any of the following.
   a. Pushing an opponent with following actions:
      (a) Pushing an opponent in the back or chest.
      (b) Pushing an opponent with the arm or hand.
      (c) Pushing an opponent with the head or elbow.
   b. Charging From Behind.
   c. Handles the ball, or causes the ball to be handled, by the opposing side from position of employment on the field.
   d. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   e. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   f. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   g. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   h. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   i. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   j. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   k. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   l. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   m. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   n. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   o. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   p. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   q. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   r. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   s. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   t. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   u. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   v. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   w. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   x. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   y. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.
   z. Taking the ball from an opponent or breaking away from an opponent in possession.