ELOPEMENT
By G. B.

A thoroughly delightful, wholesome farce-comedy, for all the family. "ELOPEMENT" opens at the Globe next Wednesday. Compositional, the picture contains many amusing situations, the delineation of the characters is most cleverly done, and the humor is simple and direct. It is a perfect study of the relations between a young man who is too busy to be taken seriously, and a girl who is too sensible to be taken lightly. The characters are well drawn, the situations are cleverly arranged, and the humor is direct and effective.

There is no doubt that the audience will enjoy the performance, and that they will leave the theatre with a smile on their faces. The cast is excellent, and the acting is first-rate. The play is well produced, and the set is cleverly arranged.

GARDEN CANE FIRES
By ASBURY

It was made abundantly clear from the presentation that this picture would devote itself entirely to general subjects, and that the story was not to be seen as a mere show. The plot is cleverly arranged, and the characters are well drawn. The humor is direct and effective, and the audience will leave the theatre with a smile on their faces. The cast is excellent, and the acting is first-rate.

HOLLYHOCKS

By TAMARIN

The seed can be put straight into the ground of their own choosing, or it can be put in a box. The flowers are large, and are of various shades. The first is mauve, and the second is a deep purple. The flowers are a favorite with the ladies, and are used in gardens and parks.
