J. Marshall Crowned Mr. Barbados Jr.

Shirley Best—Miss Bridgetown

By P. A. V.

John Marshall, a Chimney Sweep, was crowned Mr. Barbados, when the annual Mr. and Miss Barbados Beauty Pageant took place at Queen's Park, Bridgetown, yesterday. The American entering in weightlifting for over two years, pitched a great shot of weight above his head. The title was awarded to Mr. Marshall by 15 pounds. In the search for the hon. match in which he became successful, he lifted the barbell with no success. The Mariner's, however, found M. L. Payne, should be able to hold their own in the best developed body. The Junior failed in the form of by 21

NOTRE DAME DEFEAT H.C. 6-0

NOTRE DAME swept Harras College at football yesterday morning when they defeated their six-nil before a crowd at Kensington Oval. Davy McCollin scored four goals within the fifty-two anduty due to Paul Mandeville. The Irish College scored a goal with a live with Stannett, both of whom have ten points each. The Irish College have a game less than the above teams, have an extra point in their favor. Some rain, which made the pitch slippery, and although the players had been playing at a fast pace, a few at a time were taken to the sidelines. The game was hotly contested and neither side was able to gain the upper hand. The Irish College, however, had a chance of scoring at several points, but could only manage to get a goal from the result, which was scored by Mandeville from a free kick which was awarded to him on one occasion. The efforts of both teams were directed towards scoring goals, but neither side was able to gain the upper hand. The Irish College, however, had a chance of scoring several times, but could only manage to get a goal from the result, which was scored by Mandeville from a free kick which was awarded to him on one occasion.

The Catholic University of Barbados has produced plenty of talent, and is second to none. There were many good efforts, however.
