Farnum: A Giant Wheelsman

Olympic Hope
Of Barbados
By J. C. Proute

The Cycle and Athletic Meeting, held at the Barbados Olympic Sports Grounds, had a very successful day. The entries were much to the satisfaction of the organizers, and the attempt made by all the more as we saw and watched some of the best riders in the country, including Farnum, to whom we have the pleasure of devoting this article.

Farnum, who has been a favorite with the Barbadian public for several years, is a man of great ability and skill. He has been known to the public for many years and has always been a constant favorite with the Barbadian public.

Farnum was one of the most popular riders in the meeting, and his performance was of the highest order. He received a hearty welcome from the crowd, and was cheered loudly throughout the race.

Farnum proved himself to be a man of great strength and speed, and his performance was a sight to behold. He won the race with ease, and his time of 3:30 minutes was a new record for the distance.

Brunetto Is Well
Handicapped For Aseot

Racing Manager Richard Brahein

At present Farnum appears the best-weighted horse in the event, the Royal Horse Cup of just under a mile on June 12.

A race meeting was held in Barbados recently, and the event was won by Brunetto, who was ridden by Mr. John Skinner. The race was a close one, and the crowd was delighted with the performance of Brunetto, who was handicapped for Aseot.

Brunetto is a fine specimen of the breed, and his performance was a sight to behold. He won the race with ease, and his time of 1:05 minutes was a new record for the distance.
