Ghavam Orders Troops To Restore Order
Shah Refuses To Interfere

TEHERAN, July 19. Premier Ahmed Ghavam ordered the Provincial Governors and military commanders throughout Iran to assume full powers on Saturday to suppress riots and demonstrations in support of former Premier Mohammed Mossadegh. The troops and police earlier on Saturday used gas, riots and batons in clash with pro-Mossadegh demonstrators here while in a short time, and tanks were called into action against demonstrators.

In Tehran, home district, Mossadegh's supporters jammed in Sherman tanks were toappen there. They were killed and more tanks and truck-tanks have been driven off after about 12 were reported to have been wound-

RICE SHORTAGE

During the past week there was a report of increased demand for rice which has driven up prices. Some rice brokers say that the shortage is not likely to last long because rice from parishes in the west will soon reach the market.
