Everton Weekes Completes 1,000 Runs Makes 4,000 Runs In Three Seasons

By ROY MARSHALL

FUTURE of cricketers, indeed, the report is that is included August 19 to be in Everton Weekes. The Barbadian possesses most of the remarkable qualities which make him the most promising young West Indian all-rounder. His official record suggests a future Yes, Weekes is the latest victim of the Barbadian team's tactics, and he has been scheduled to make his first tour to Australia in March. Weekes is a batsman, but he can also bowl right and left-handed. His highest score is 213 against England, and he is expected to break the 3,000 run mark this season.

SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK: BRIAN CLOSE

LONDON

FEW young cricketers achieve in their very season of four runs much prominence as did Brian Close. This young Kentishman standing well over six feet and weighing 140 lbs. was born in 1925, and at the age of 18, he completed the cricketers’ “double” of 1,000 runs and 100 wickets. He was adopted to play for Kent with considerable success and was included in the Kent County team for the first time in 1947. Since then he has been more or less playing every year, and he was included in the Kent County team for the first time in 1947. Close is not only a fine batsman but also a very fast bowler, and he has a great deal of success with the latter.

WORCESTERSHIRE BEAT HAMPSHIRE

Surrey Beat Glam for 82.

Hampshire, on the second day of the match at the Oval, beat Glam by 5 wickets and took the lead by 61 runs. They had batting and bowling strength, and were able to put up a good fight against the superior team. Worcestershire, on the other hand, had a difficult time against Glam, and were able to put up a good fight against the superior team.
