Modern High School Hold Speech Day
Principal And Staff Are Doing Good Job
—JUDGE CHERRY

Guest speaker at the Modern High School prize day yesterday, Mr. J. R. B. Cherry, Senior Deputy Mayor of Bridgetown, delivered the address. This is his second appearance at the Modern, his first being last year. He was not surprised to see so many of the staff present, and he would not have been surprised to find that many of the pupils were present, but he was pleased to see so many of the fathers and mothers present. The Modern is a school where both boys and girls are treated as equals. The principal, Mr. Louis Lynch, the staff and the pupils, all work together to make the Modern a success. The Modern is the only school in Barbados where both boys and girls are treated as equals. The Modern is the only school in Barbados where both boys and girls are treated as equals. The Modern is the only school in Barbados where both boys and girls are treated as equals.

But not all said it was not. The guest, Mr. Cherry, added that he was glad to see so many of the staff present, and he would not have been surprised to find that many of the pupils were present, but he was pleased to see so many of the fathers and mothers present. The Modern is a school where both boys and girls are treated as equals. The principal, Mr. Louis Lynch, the staff and the pupils, all work together to make the Modern a success.

"I had not expected to see so many of the staff present, and I was not surprised to find that many of the pupils were present, but I was pleased to see so many of the fathers and mothers present. The Modern is a school where both boys and girls are treated as equals. The principal, Mr. Louis Lynch, the staff and the pupils, all work together to make the Modern a success."

The Modern is the only school in Barbados where both boys and girls are treated as equals. The Modern is the only school in Barbados where both boys and girls are treated as equals. The Modern is the only school in Barbados where both boys and girls are treated as equals.

The Modern is the only school in Barbados where both boys and girls are treated as equals. The Modern is the only school in Barbados where both boys and girls are treated as equals. The Modern is the only school in Barbados where both boys and girls are treated as equals. The Modern is the only school in Barbados where both boys and girls are treated as equals.