7. In the excitement of watching a bird near the trap it is considered proper to assume some grotesque posture and maintain it until the bird either is caught or flies away. It is then that the expression "horbakka" (hold back) is used as a warning not to move.

Arlington, Mass., U.S.A.