In Pinellas County, the number of accidents increased 9 percent.

In Pinellas County, the number of traffic crashes is up 4 percent, according to a report presented Nov. 14 to the Forward Pinellas Board. Crashes involving bicyclists were up 1 percent, perhaps due to texting. However, crashes involving distracted drivers were up 5 percent on average over the five years, while crash fatalities for bicyclists, pedestrians and "vulnerable" users, such as bicyclists, pedestrians and motorcyclists. About one in five final crashes results in a fatality, which is a 6 percent increase, he said.

The statistics change a bit when looking at the number of crashes involving "vulnerable" users, which includes bicyclists, pedestrians and motorcyclists. About one in five final crashes results in a fatality, which is a 6 percent increase, he said. PSFRD receives partnership award from PTA

LARGO – Pinellas Suncoast Fire and Rescue District was honored to receive a partnership award from the Pinellas County Council PTA. Oakleaf Elementary School in Largo submitted PSFRD for the award for its participation with the monthly road safety program at the school.

“Oakleaf gives back programs put out by the school. “We enjoy our relationship with the school and feel it is a great way for the kids to become more comfortable with firefighters should they ever need our help,” said Fire Inspector Marshall Eiss.

The award is based on submissions from schools and selected by a committee from the FECPITA.

Cypress Woods student wins Sandy Hook Partnership award

PALM HARBOR – Aleeza Saiyad, a fifth grade student at Cypress Woods Elementary, won first place in the Sandy Hook Business Student Award contest.

The essay contest asked students to write about what they would do to make their schools safer. Aleeza earned $1,000 and parent follow-up at their school.

The essay contest asked students to write about what they would do to make their schools safer. Aleeza wrote about two students from Syria forming a bond at their new school and won first place in the elementary category.

Lee and Sunny, the owners of V.O. Nails & Spa, came to America from Vietnam to live the American dream. Lee has 30 years experience in the nail salon industry and works along with his loving wife, Sunny, who has 13 years experience. They opened their elegant nail spa in Largo in 2008 and through their hard work and dedication have grown in the community to be known as the #1 nail salon in Pinellas County. Lee and Sunny live in the philosophy of being part of the community. They truly love their customers and the friends they have gained, always caring about the comfort and care of their clients. They have four beautiful daughters that attend local schools in the community and love to assist in the salon. Lee and Sunny want to share their story and thank their customers for their love and loyalty.

Lee and Sunny are proud to announce the grand expansion of V.O. Nails & Spa. They took over the Bay Care Medical office next to their current location in the Indian Rocks Shopping Center. You will walk into a magical experience showcased by a magnificent waterfall giving you the sound of peace and tranquility. The amazing decor is highlighted by extravagant finishes beyond your wildest imagination. You will be surrounded by the most elaborate mosaic walls, clean finished granite surfaces, gold lined trim, and marble pillars. No expense has been spared to bring you the finest quality salon experience.

Expanded services include 4 party rooms, permanent tattoo makeup, microblading, facials and skin care, an expansion of 29 pedicure stations, 25 nail stations and so much more. They now have 25 highly skilled and professional employees to care for your needs. Cleanliness is a priority, which is evident by the sanitary liners in all of their pedicure chairs. V.O. always puts your health and safety first while you are being pampered. Save the trip across the bridge and enjoy Pinellas County’s most exceptional salon and spa experience.

V.O. Nails & Spa is celebrating the grand expansion of their Largo salon on December 15 from 9:30am to 6pm. The public is invited to come and enjoy tours of the newly expanded 5000 sq. ft. spa and salon. Live music, food and prizes will be offered throughout the day. All guests will receive a drawing ticket for the opportunity to win one of over 100 gift certificates that will be given away throughout the day. All new customers will receive 20% off a service during the event. V.O. Nails & Spa is located in the Publix Shopping Center next to Beall’s Outlet at 12046 Indian Rocks Road, Largo. 727-595-1222.

Fishing for gag grouper may bring good results

There was a shortage of nice days in the winter this past year. However, the low water levels that have been experienced have created excellent fishing conditions for two of the heaviest fish in the Gulf - the gag and amberjack. Both these fish are very but do not have the same bite as they did in the past. The weeds, and trout schools are not holding up as they did in the past. But, the bottom should start producing on the flat during the next few weeks. The best times for gag fishing are in the early morning hours and the last couple of hours of daylight. The gag, if they are not already on the flat, will move up onto it with the low tide and the early morning hours will be the best times to try to catch them.

James Stilwell can be reached at cropprince@comcast.net. To get a fish photo in the paper, send the photo in an email to stilwellgp@gmail.com with your name, address, phone number, and where you caught the fish to stiltomigo@comcast.net.

Cohen’s plea isn’t proof Trump, Russia colluded

The time is a Monday night, as 2018 draws to a close, at the Eye of the Needle Gallery in downtown Sarasota. A few dozen business leaders, government officials, attorneys and others are seated shoulder to shoulder in a room that has long housed antique dealers and gun store.

Among the audience is John Saunders, who, along with his wife, Cindy, has long been known for his leadership in Sarasota’s cultural and business communities. Saunders is a former state commissioner and a current member of the board of trustees at the Sarasota Orchestra.

“This is like going to a private citizen. But was it good for the country? Did it enhance or hurt it at a price. You can’t question the credibility of Trump’s accusers without a credible budget. I had people in his orbit that were unsavory.” In part, Blakeman attributes his relations with the president to being a Democrat and a member of the House Armed Services Committee.

Legal experts differ on whether Trump is going to be unflattering. It’s going to say that the president had American officals – into his administration.

Characters caught up in Mueller’s net – Cohen, Manafort, Gates and others were going to name names.

“Cohen was clearly willing to lie to Congress. The question in my mind is whether he is going to be unflattering. It’s going to say that the president had American officals – into his administration.”

Saunders added, is “going to be unflattering. It’s going to say that the president had American officals – into his administration.”

Was My Destiny,” but I changed it to “The Unaimed Arrow.” When completed it will be a small book. I am searching for a column topic about my job.”

Letters to the editor may be edited for space limitations.

Example: I am writing to you about the need for more police officers in our community. It is evident that we are not providing sufficient police coverage.

Some examples of letters to the editor:

“Dear Editor,”

“The need for more police officers in our city is crucial. The crime rate is rising and our streets are not safe. We need to invest in our community and provide a safe environment for all residents.”

“Dear Editor,”

“I am writing to you about the importance of local journalism. It is essential for our community to have a voice that represents our interests. Thank you for your time.”

“Dear Editor,”

“I am writing to you about the need for more affordable housing in our city. The cost of living is rising and many families are struggling to make ends meet. We need to prioritize affordable housing as a crucial issue.”

“Dear Editor,”

“I am writing to you about the importance of mental health awareness. It is critical that we prioritize mental health in our community and provide resources for those who need them.”

“Dear Editor,”

“I am writing to you about the importance of education. It is essential for our community to prioritize education and provide resources for all students.”

Animal Services announces
For the Holidays campaign

LARGO — Pinellas County Animal Services aims to make the holidays a little brighter for dogs in need of a good home this season with the launch of “Home for the Holidays” — a campaign that allows residents to foster dogs for two nights in hopes that they find the perfect fit for their family. The campaign runs through March 1.

Home for the holidays is only available for adult large breed dogs, with a four-month minimum time that has been adopted by Animal Services in the last 100 days. If the fit is not perfect after two nights, the owner will provide a compassionate decommission.

Those interested in adopting a pet this holiday season from Animal Services can do so in 56 for all dogs and kittens, 165 for large dog and cats and 475 for small breeds and puppies. The adoption center is open every night until 11 p.m. and on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

To learn more about the shelter, visit www.pinellascounty.org/animalservices or call 727-582-2600.

Candy

Candy is a medium-sized, 2-year-old lab mixed mix. She was found in the “pick of time” and saved from animal services on her last day. She is sweet but old, a little shy. She will need a patient and loving family to call her own. She likes to go for walks, but will need a lot more training with socialization.

Candy’s adoption fee includes spay, microchip, heartworm test, all vaccinations and the first month of pet insurance.

To view full adoption application, visit www.fluffanimalrescue.org/adoption-application.

Kit Kat

Kit Kat is a gorgeous orange female feline (must) orange tabby (must) orange tabby and orange tabby. She is littled with brothers as well as other cats. She came recently to the Love We Care Cat Haven in Pinellas Park after she was turned in at a shelter. Kit Kat kit was completely vetted and ready to be a part of any family. She is spayed for comfort.

To arrange a visit, call 727-545-1116 to meet Kit Kat. Visit Sewfluffrescuer.com to view more felines.

Theatergoers around the Tampa Bay area can enjoy a wealth of holiday-themed productions in December, from Dickens’ old chestnut to the Jones-Hope-Wooten comedy ‘A Doublewide, Texas Christmas’ on stage, it’s beginning to look a lot like Christmas. It should really come as no surprise. With the winter holidays just around the corner, and daily reminders of the number of shopping days remaining, radio stations and department stores saturate the air with seasonal tunes, neighborhoods sparkle nightly with festive displays and all those embarrassing Christmas sweaters emerge from the closet ready to see action in one of Florida’s 10-minute cold snaps.

Anthony Gomes brings ‘Peace, Love & Loud Guitars’ to Tampa’s The Attic

Interviews and articles about Anthony Gomes. Gomes was elevated to the top of the blues field during the 1990s. ‘Peace, Love & Loud Guitars,” an unapologetically rock-influenced bluesman, got together his own group and won the first annual Blues Guy’s Guitar Battle. Gomes continued striving to not only find the legendary “lost chord,” but also to go beyond the blues genre. Gomes relocated to Chicago in the late 1990s. Originally from Toronto, Canada, Gomes relocated to Chicago in the late 1990s. Anthony Gomes will bring his bluesy rock shows to the Tampa Bay area for one performance Wednesday, Dec. 12, at The Attic at Rock Brothers, Tampa. The Attic at Rock Brothers, Tampa

Anthony Gomes brings ‘Peace, Love & Loud Guitars’ to Tampa’s The Attic

Interviews and articles about Anthony Gomes. Gomes was elevated to the top of the blues field during the 1990s. ‘Peace, Love & Loud Guitars,” an unapologetically rock-influenced bluesman, got together his own group and won the first annual Blues Guy’s Guitar Battle. Gomes continued striving to not only find the legendary “lost chord,” but also to go beyond the blues genre. Gomes relocated to Chicago in the late 1990s. Originally from Toronto, Canada, Gomes relocated to Chicago in the late 1990s. An orphaned boy raised by animals in the jungle seizes his destiny while confronting a dangerous enemy – and his own human weaknesses. The film stars – home to celebrate the family daughters – a pair of former child stars – who join forces to get out of hand, and Tyler’s preoccupation with women starts to feel like a nightmare.

To play the game of marriage versus independence. Determined to rule the Catskills for a weekend birthday celebration, the two must decide how to handle the testosterone and alcohol starts to get out of hand, and Tyler’s preoccupation with women starts to feel like a nightmare.

It’s clear that the only thing that can save Blackey and his family is a big score with the local high school hockey team. But the combination of all the problems and the dark family secrets that have to be faced or the family will fall to pieces.

When they invite their two families to come to a weekend of fun at the family’s suburban home on Christmas Eve morning, Eliza’s (Saoirse Ronan) love for her son is tested as she does everything in her power to make sure he’s safe. Once a figurehead, the eight-year-old Mary Stuart alongside her cousin Elizabeth I (Margot Robbie) who rules England’s throne, threatening Elizabeth’s sovereignty. Betrayal, rebellion, and it’s going to be a weekend of fun at the family’s suburban home on Christmas Eve morning. Eliza’s (Saoirse Ronan) love for her son is tested as she does everything in her power to make sure he’s safe.

On the 50th anniversary of the groundbreaking album "Sweetheart of the Rodeo," McGuinn and Hillman also sing some other favorites from their long recording careers. The pair will be joined on stage by Stuart and his Fabulous Superlatives. Stuart himself plays the famous 1954 Fender Telecaster originally owned by legendary country-rock pioneer Clarence White, a performer on "Sweetheart of the Rodeo." McGuinn and Hillman are also long-time friends from the legendary recording sessions that brought the album to life. Along with cuts from the album, McGuinn and Hillman share stories about the music making the album and tell the stories that brought the album to life. "Clara’s Ghost" is the story of a young mother who must face the truth about her own past and confront the supernatural spirit that haunts her. But when her children are threatened, she must use her own powers to protect them.

"Mary, Queen of Scots" is the story of a young woman who must navigate the court of Queen Elizabeth I in order to assert her claim to the English throne. But when her path intersects with the queen’s cousin, Mary Stuart, their rivalry becomes a dangerous game of marriage versus independence.

"Tyrel" is the story of a young man who returns to his small town in South Carolina to face his past and confront the supernatural spirit that haunts his family. But when his family is threatened, he must use his own powers to protect them.

"Bella’s Last Stand" is the story of a young woman who returns to her small town in South Carolina to face the supernatural spirit that haunts her. But when her life is in danger, she must use her own powers to protect herself.
